ABOUT US

Pragati Sansthan Baran, situated in the heart of Baran, Rajasthan, is a dedicated organization that focuses on fostering development and empowerment within local communities through sustainable initiatives specifically tailored to meet their unique needs. The organization places a strong emphasis on Natural Resource Management and collaborates with various governmental and non-governmental agencies to implement impactful projects that aim to transform lives. By actively seeking partnerships, Pragati Sansthan maximizes resources and expertise, demonstrating its capabilities in Institution Building through programs that promote informal education, microfinance, capacity building, and research in Dry Land Development. A crucial aspect of its mission is the promotion of gender equality, ensuring that women have equal opportunities to engage in and benefit from various programs, which in turn strengthens the social fabric of the communities served. The organization recognizes that empowering women is essential for achieving broader development goals, and it integrates this principle into all its initiatives. Looking ahead, Pragati Sansthan Baran aspires to replicate its successful models in other regions, aiming to create a vast network of empowered communities throughout Rajasthan and beyond. This vision underscores its commitment to advancing sustainable and inclusive development for all, ensuring that the benefits of growth and progress are shared equitably. By focusing on the needs of local populations and fostering collaboration among different stakeholders, Pragati Sansthan is not only addressing immediate challenges but also laying the groundwork for long-term resilience and self-sufficiency in the communities it serves. Through its holistic approach, the organization stands as a beacon of hope and change, inspiring other entities to engage in similar efforts for community upliftment and sustainable development.

VISION AND MISSION

VISION

Pragati Sansthan Baran aims to create an inclusive and equitable society where marginalized groups, especially women, have significant roles in decision-making. The organization envisions a future where every voice is heard and individual potential is realized, with sustainable development as a foundation for progress. Through collaboration, education, and advocacy, it seeks to foster respect and opportunity for lasting change and empowerment.

MISSION

Pragati Sansthan Baran is committed to empowering marginalized communities, with a special focus on women, to enhance their participation in economic, social, and political spheres. Our mission is to foster sustainable development through targeted capacity building, resource mobilization, and advocacy. We aim to equip individuals with the tools they need to take charge of their future, enabling them to create lasting change within their communities. By promoting inclusivity and resilience, Pragati Sansthan Baran envisions a world where every individual has the opportunity to thrive and contribute towards a brighter future for generations to come.

ACTIVITIES & FINANCIAL OVERVIEW:

The fiscal year 2022-23 presented extraordinary challenges due to the global pandemic. Despite this, the Sewa Shram Shakti Foundation remained committed to uplifting rural communities in Karnataka. We adapted our strategies by embracing innovative approaches and leveraging technology to sustain the progress of our initiatives, while prioritizing the well-being of both our team members and the communities we serve. This report highlights our significant achievements in skill development, natural resource management, financial inclusion, and women's empowerment.

ACTIVITIES

1. NAVJIVAN YOJANA

Budget: ₹280,420

Location: Baran

The Navjivan Yojana program, implemented by Pragati Sansthan Baran, aims to empower underprivileged individuals through vocational training and skill development. The program focuses on providing training in various trades, such as tailoring, carpentry, and electrical work, to equip beneficiaries with the skills necessary to secure employment or start their own businesses. By investing in human capital, Navjivan Yojana seeks to alleviate poverty and improve the overall well-being of the target population.

2. INDIRA RASOI

BUDGET - ₹3,241,300

LOCATION - Baran

BENEFICIARY -

144,000 individuals including children, the elderly, and individuals with disabilities

DESCRIPTION -

The Indira Rasoi program, spearheaded by Pragati Sansthan Baran, plays a pivotal role in combating food insecurity and malnutrition in the region by offering affordable and nutritious meals through a well-organized network of community kitchens. This initiative goes beyond merely addressing immediate hunger; it actively contributes to the overall health and development of its beneficiaries, fostering a strong sense of community among participants. By ensuring regular meal distribution, Indira Rasoi significantly enhances the quality of life for individuals and families, empowering them to pursue healthier, more productive lifestyles free from the burden of food scarcity. The program not only provides essential nutrition but also serves as a platform for social responsibility and community engagement, encouraging local involvement and support. Its focus on marginalized populations in Baran underscores a commitment to prioritizing nutrition and making healthy meals accessible to those who need them the most. Furthermore, the initiative promotes awareness about the importance of balanced diets and healthy eating habits, which can have long-term benefits for the entire community. Through collaborative efforts, Indira Rasoi addresses systemic issues of poverty and inequality, creating a ripple effect that fosters resilience and self-sufficiency among the beneficiaries. As a model of effective community action, the program exemplifies how targeted interventions can lead to meaningful change, not only by alleviating hunger but also by building a more equitable society. Ultimately, Indira Rasoi stands as a testament to the power of collective effort in tackling pressing social issues, proving that when communities come together, they can create sustainable solutions that uplift and empower individuals, thereby transforming lives for the better.

3. NEHRU BAL VIDYALAYA

Budget: ₹309,810

Location: Baran

The Nehru Bal Vidyalaya program, launched by Pragati Sansthan Baran, is dedicated to delivering quality education to underprivileged children in Baran within a budget of ₹309,810. This initiative goes beyond traditional academics by incorporating a holistic approach to learning, which includes extracurricular activities and vocational training, ensuring that students develop well-rounded skills. The program is designed to create a supportive and stimulating learning environment, where experienced educators guide children in their educational journey. By providing access to necessary resources and fostering personal growth, Nehru Bal Vidyalaya plays a crucial role in empowering these children, equipping them with the tools they need to succeed academically and socially. The ultimate goal of the program is to enable participants to realize their full potential, thereby breaking the cycle of poverty that often plagues their communities. Through this initiative, Pragati Sansthan Baran seeks to instill confidence, resilience, and a passion for learning, paving the way for a brighter future for these young minds. By investing in education and skill development, the program not only changes individual lives but also contributes positively to the broader community, promoting social equity and progress.

4. NAREGA

Budget: ₹106,499

Location: Baran

The budget of ₹106,499 allocated for the Narega initiative in Baran is a strategic investment aimed at enhancing local employment opportunities while addressing community needs through various developmental projects. This funding, although modest compared to larger programs, plays a crucial role in facilitating the implementation and maintenance of essential services such as community kitchens under the Indira Rasoi scheme, which provides nutritious meals to the underprivileged, and the establishment of educational infrastructure for Nehru Bal Vidyalaya, aimed at improving access to quality education for children. Additionally, it supports the development of vocational training centers under the Navjivan Yojana, equipping residents with the skills necessary for sustainable livelihoods. By integrating employment generation through the MGNREGA scheme with these social welfare initiatives, the budget not only aims to create jobs but also fosters community upliftment. Local residents can engage in various tasks, from construction to maintenance, thereby enhancing their earning potential while contributing to the overall development of their area. This approach promotes a sense of ownership and responsibility among the community members, ensuring that the projects are tailored to meet local needs and priorities.

5. NUTRI GARDEN

Location: Baran, Rajasthan, India

Description:

Nutri-gardens, also referred to as kitchen gardens, provide a sustainable and practical method to improve nutrition and food security, especially in rural areas like Baran. These gardens promote the cultivation of a variety of fruits, vegetables, and herbs, facilitating easy access to fresh and nutritious food.

Key Benefits of Nutri-Gardens:

- Enhanced Nutrition: Nutri-gardens increase the availability of fresh, locally grown produce, which helps improve diets and reduce malnutrition.
- Food Security: They act as a reliable food source, particularly during difficult times or economic hardships.
- Lower Food Costs: Growing your own food significantly reduces household expenses associated with purchasing groceries.
- Environmental Advantages: Nutri-gardens encourage sustainable farming practices, including organic methods and water conservation.
- Community Empowerment: They foster community engagement and the exchange of agricultural knowledge and skills.

Implementation in Baran:

Nutri-gardens can be established in various settings across Baran, such as schools, community centers, and individual households. By promoting the cultivation of nutrient-rich crops like leafy greens, legumes, and fruits, these gardens can play a crucial role in addressing nutritional deficiencies and improving the overall health and wellness of the community.

Case Study:

In a successful initiative within Baran, a local NGO partnered with schools to implement nutri-gardens. Students were engaged in hands-on gardening activities, which not only educated them about sustainable farming but also provided fresh produce for their meals. As a result, the school reported a noticeable improvement in the students' health, including increased energy levels and better concentration in classes.
